Soka Gakkai International (SGI) is a Buddhism network that actively promotes peace, culture and education through personal change and social contribution.

The 12 million members of SGI around the world (192 countries) embrace Nichiren Buddhism, a dynamic philosophy grounded in the realities of daily life.

The core philosophy of the SGI can be summed up by the concept of "Human revolution." This is the idea that the self-motivated inner change of a single individual positively affects the larger web of life and results in the rejuvenation of human society. The SGI movement has its roots in the life-affirming philosophy of Nichiren, a Buddhist monk who lived in 13th-century Japan.
